

Peru State Women's Golf Second in Conference Tournament

The Peru State Women's golf team finished second at the Heart of America Athletic Conference meet in Boonville, Missouri. This is believed to be the highest finish ever for a women's golf team at Peru State College.

Avila University won the team title and Megan Miehe of Culver-Stockton College was the medalist.

The Bobcats finished the two-day tournament with a score of 730 picking up the second place finish in a playoff with Baker University. Avila shot a score of 715 for the title.

Jordan Schaardt of Humboldt led the Bobcats with a two day total of 169 which was six shots from first place. Rounds of 83 and 86 put the Bobcat team captain in third place. A nagging shoulder injury bothered her throughout the conference tournament according to coach Brett Hahn.

Courtney Musgrave of Omaha was one shot behind Schaardt with a two day total of 170, good for a fourth place finish. Katie Potter of Omaha tied for eighth with a score of 180.

Jacey Stoner had a score of 211.
