Chiefs Interested in Adding TE Clark

Dallas Clark caught over 400 passes from Peyton Manning in their time together at Indianapolis. Since the Chiefs missed out on Manning as he moved onto Denver, the Chiefs are showing interest in the nine-year veteran tight end.

Clark has dealt with injuries the last two years, playing in just 17 games and making 71 catches. If Clark signs with the Chiefs, the 33 year old would join Kevin Boss and Tony Moeaki on the depth chart.
