

<http://www.MSCNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=12802>

Atchison Wings & Wheels Saturday

Atchison's "Wings and Wheels" will take place Saturday morning at the Amelia Earhart Airport.

It will feature a variety of fixed wing, antique, gyrocopter and ultralight aircrafts and classic automobiles.

It begins at eight and lasts throughout the day.

Experimental Aircraft Association member Eula Morrow says they are going to try something new with the public this year.

(Play Audio) RT: :23

The area boy scouts will also be present to earn services badges by serving breakfast and lunch.

Many Signals Communications