Falls City School Board will Meet Monday

The Falls City Board of Education will hold its regular June meeting Monday evening. Several action items are on the agenda for the 7:00 p.m. session.

The board will set the substitute teacher pay rate for the next school year, will take action on teacher contracts and a teacher resignation. The board will consider approval of the second reading on some policy revisions and the first reading of other policy revisions.

Board members are expected to meet in closed session to discuss compensation for the district's principals.
