

<http://www.MSCNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=14370>

Atchison Woman Pleads Guilty to Felony

(KAIR) -- An Atchison woman could face prison time for fleeing from law enforcement.

Sheena Kley pled guilty to a felony charge of interference with a law enforcement officer Friday in Atchison County District Court.

She was arrested by Atchison Police on June 27th on Locust Drive after officers were attempting to locate her on a warrant from Buchanan County, Missouri.

After officers located her, Kley fled on foot from the residence she was at and was later apprehended after a short chase.

Sentencing was set for July 30th.

She also was sentenced Friday to 18 months of probation, suspended from 15 months in prison, on a charge of possession of methamphetamine.

Kley was arrested on the charge as part of a raid conducted by Atchison Police on a home in the 600 block of Parallel on May 11th.

Many Signals Communications