

<http://www.MSCNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=14583>

Atchison Woman Opts for Prelim on Chamber Certificate Case

(KAIR) -- A 28-year-old Atchison woman will have a preliminary hearing on multiple charges related to the forgery and theft of gift certificates from the Atchison Chamber of Commerce.

Kelly Young will have the hearing on August 7th in Atchison County District Court.

She was arrested by on July 3rd in Michigan on a District Court warrant for allegedly taking and forging the certificates last November.

Young is out on 10 thousand dollars bond.

Many Signals Communications