

<http://www.MSCNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=14683>

Doniphan County Fair Underway In Troy

(KNZA)--The Doniphan County Fair is in full swing this week, with the year long efforts of local 4-H members being recognized and awarded.

Among the members showing off their work is Owen Root, involved in numerous 4-H activities(Play Audio)

Member John Boyle is also involved, showing off a number of his projects this week(Play Audio)

The two 4-H members also worked together to design a unique scarecrow, now entered among their other exhibits(Play Audio)

An annual highlight of the fair, crowning of the 4-H prince and princess, took place Monday evening.

Crowned as prince was Jacob Smith, a 6-year member of the Sunflower 4-H club in Wathena.

Crowned as princess was Bailey Lackey, a 7-year member of the Highland Clover Patch Club.

The Doniphan County Fair runs through Friday on the fairgrounds in Troy.

Many Signals Communications