Atchison Woman Pleads to Amended Charges

(KAIR) -- A 28-year-old Atchison woman pleaded no contest in Atchison County District Court Friday to a pair of charges.

Dayshia Page pled to felony possession of a narcotic and misdemeanor theft.

In exchange, a count of aggravated burglary was dismissed.

She was arrested in late July by Atchison Police as a result of a February 8th incident where Page, who was on the Wal-Mart banned list, entered the store and picked up another individual's hydrocodone prescription from the pharmacy without authorization.

On the way out of the store, she also took a bottle of water.

Sentencing is scheduled for October 15th.

Page is currently free on 20 thousand dollars bond.
