Free KanCare Educational Meeting in Atchison

(KAIR) -- The State of Kansas will be holding KanCare educational meetings in eight cities across Kansas, including Atchison.

It will be September 26th from six to eight at the Mercantile Room at the Heritage Conference Center.

Through the presentations and the question-and-answer sessions, details will be provided about the transition from old Medicaid to KanCare.

These meetings are for consumers of Medicaid.

A meeting for Medicaid providers will be at the same place earlier in the day from one to three.

Providers are asked to register online.

Here's the link for providers to register:
