Farm Service Agency Has Conservation Loans Available

(KLZA) The USDA's Farm Service Agency now has conservation loans available to allow farmers and ranchers to implement conservation practices on their land to help protect natural resources. Unlike other FSA guaranteed loan programs, Conservation Loans are not limited to family size farms. Operators who may not normally qualify for an FSA guaranteed farm operating or ownership loans could be eligible for a Guaranteed Conservation Loan.

The Guaranteed Loan limit is $1,302,000 with varying interest rates. The maximum guarantee FSA can issue for this type of loan is 75 percent.

For questions regarding Guaranteed Conservation Loans, contact your County FSA office.
