

<http://www.MSCNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=19761>

Brownback Requests Silence For Shooting Victims
(KNZA)--A moment of silence for those killed in Connecticut.

That request is made by Kansas Governor Sam Brownback, who urges all Kansans to observe the moment Friday morning at 9:30 local time.

Brownback says he, on behalf of the people of Kansas, would like to send his deepest sympathy to the family and friends of the victims of the shooting in Newtown, Connecticut.

Many Signals Communications