

<http://www.MSCNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=21692>

Update: Mayetta Murder Suspects Returned To Kansas

(KNZA)-The duo accused of second degree murder in the January shooting death of a Mayetta man have been brought back to Kansas to face charges.

Deputies with the Jackson County Sheriff's Office transported Lloyd Wabaunsee and Desiree Shopteese back to Kansas from the Polk County Jail in Des Moines, Iowa Sunday.

Both waived extradition last week to Kansas following the issuance of warrants in January for the January 10th shooting death of Kevin Stanley in Mayetta.

Wabaunsee and Shopteese were apprehended January 17th in Urbandale, Iowa, where they were found hiding in the trunk of a car in a grocery store parking lot.

Shopteese is being held in the Jackson County Jail on $150,000 bond and Wabaunsee is being held on $500,000 bond.

Three others are also charged in the case. Aaron Lofton of Topeka and Rachel Hudson of Denison are each charged with two counts of aiding a felon. Pre-trial status hearings for Lofton and Hudson are scheduled for Friday.

37-year-old Steven Eastman of Topeka is charged with aiding and abetting murder in the second degree, obstructing apprehension or prosecution and interfering with law enforcement official duty.

Many Signals Communications