Pork Quality Assurance Plus Training Planned in Beatrice

(KTNC) - The University of Nebraska Extension Office in Gage County will offer a Pork Quality Assurance Plus training session this Friday afternoon. The session begins at 2:00 p.m., at the Extension Office at the Gage County Fairgrounds in Beatrice.

UNL Swine Specialist, Dr. Duane Reese, will be the instructor along with former extension educator Larry Germer.

Following the PQA-Plus training, at 3:30 p.m., Dr. Reese will conduct a Truckers Quality Assurance session.

Pork producers in southeast Nebraska and northeast Kansas who need to certify or recertify in either program is welcome to attend.

Contact the Gage County Extension Office at 402-223-1384 if any accommodations are needed.
