Richardson Co Burglary Suspect Arrested
(KTNC) -A man wanted for a burglary in Richardson County has been arrested in Missouri. The Kansas City Police Department arrested 29-year-old Jeremy Kaster last Thursday on a warrant from Richardson County.

The Richardson County Court issued the warrant for a burglary that Kaster is believed to have committed. He also could face other charges in Richardson County. The Sheriff's Department says Kaster is a suspect in several area burglaries.

Kaster is originally from the Tecumseh area, but has been living in the Falls City area. The Richardson County Sheriff's Department transported Kaster back to the Richardson County Jail on Saturday. He is being held there pending formal charges.
