

<http://www.MSCNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=25983>

Long Meeting for Auburn City Council

(KLZA) The Auburn Board of Education met Tuesday. During the meeting Superintendent Kevin Reiman talked a little about the budget for the next fiscal year. (play audio :16 seconds)

In other business Board members approved the student fee structure for 2013-14 with no changes from the previous year. Bids were awarded to the companies submitting low bids for bread, Bimbo Bakeries which provide Sara Lee products and for milk to Hiland – Roberts.

Superintendent Reiman also noted grant funds from USDA Rural Development were received wrapping up the fund raising for the movie theater the school district now owns. (play audio :30 seconds)

Board members also approved a bid for some new carpeting at the High School. (play audio :17 seconds)

Handbooks for the Elementary and Secondary Schools were approved during the meeting and Board members voted to declare a large list of items surplus so they can be sold at auction August 3rd at the Auburn Middle School site. (play audio :54 seconds)

Many Signals Communications