27-year-old Kyle Wheeler now faces charges of aggravated burglary, theft, and criminal damage to property.

Atchison Police Chief Mike Wilson says his department worked with the local Wal-Mart to identify the suspects believed to be involved in the theft, which happened in the early morning hours of September 23rd:

Along with the four laptops, an mp3 player, and various other electronics, were taken.

Wheeler, prior to the theft, had been banned from entering other Wal-Mart stores.
