Falls City Man Set for Trial On Felony Drug Charges

(KLZA) -- An August 12th jury trial has been set for a 31-year old Falls City man facing a pair of felony drug charges.

Chance Simon pleaded “not guilty” this week in Richardson County District Court to charges of possession of a controlled substance and possession of a controlled substance with intent to deliver.

Simon was arrested by a Falls City Police officer December 13th on a warrant. When he was arrested he allegedly had methamphetamine in his possession.
