

<http://www.MSCNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=38181>

Verdon Man Accepts Plea Agreement on Drug Charges

(KLZA)-- A Verdon man has pleaded no contest to reduced charges as part of a plea agreement in a Richardson County drug case.

A pair of felony charges against 19-year-old Levi Campbell were downgraded to misdemeanor charges in exchange for Campbell entering the plea in Richardson County District Court Tuesday.

The first charge is attempted possession of a controlled substance, Xanax. The second charge is attempted possession of money used in manufacture, distribution of a controlled substance.

Sentencing is scheduled for August 19th.

Many Signals Communications