

<http://www.MSCNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=45190>

Missouri Filing Deadline

(KLZA)-- Tuesday is the deadline to file for municipal and school board elections in Missouri. The elections will be held Tuesday, April 7.

There are two positions up on the Mound City School Board. There are two positions up for election in the Craig School District and an unexpired two-year term that will be open. The South Holt School District will have two positions open.

Mound City will have one position for Alderman open in both the North and South wards. Craig will have an election for Mayor and two, at-large, alderman positions up for election.

In Oregon, there will be elections for one alderman in both the East and West wards. Big Lake has two Board of Trustee positions up for election in April.

Many Signals Communications