Fairfax Woman Suffers Minor Injuries

(KLZA)-- 29-year old Crystal Klosek of Fairfax suffered what were described as minor injuries in a one vehicle wreck shortly after 11 p-m Wednesday evening.

According to the Missouri Highway Patrol report Klosek was eastbound when she failed to negotiate a curve and her car went off the road and struck and embankment.

Klosek was transported to Community Hospital in Fairfax in a Patrol vehicle. She was not wearing a safety device. The 1995 Pontiac Grand Prix was totaled in the wreck.
