

Former Horton Resident Killed in Crash

(KNZA)--A single-vehicle rollover crash in southern Montana has claimed the life of a former Horton resident.

The Montana Highway Patrol says 36-year-old Ragina Keo-Winsea-Fallsdown was westbound on Interstate 90 near Wyola shortly before midnight Thursday when her vehicle drifted off the road. She overcorrected twice, which caused her vehicle to roll three times.

Keo-Winsea-Fallsdown, who was not wearing a seatbelt at the time of the crash, was ejected from her vehicle. She was pronounced dead at the scene.

The wreck remains under investigation.

Kennekuk church services will be held Monday evening at 7 o'clock at the Kickapoo Community Building. Burial will be Tuesday morning at 7 o'clock at the Winsea Cemetery on the Kickapoo Reservation.

She is survived locally by her mother and step-father, Christine and Jeffery Pewamo; two sisters, Rolanda Shopteese and April Thompson; and a brother, Jeffery Pewamo Jr., all of Horton.
