

Homecoming Week at F.C. Sacred Heart

(KLZA)-- This is Homecoming week at Falls City Sacred Heart.

The Homecoming Queen candidates are Maggie Goltz, daughter of Doug and Janice Goltz, Louise Hamilton, daughter of Jeff and Sheila Hamilton and Natalie Kreifels, daughter of Michelle Kreifels.

Homecoming King candidates are Henry Arnold, son of Harry Arnold and Samantha Arnold, Lane (Reggie) Johansen, son of Chris Polorny and the late Larry Johansen and Cameron Jordan, son of Mack Jordan and Kathy Jordan.

The royalty will be crowned at the conclusion of the football game with Exeter-Milligan. A Homecoming dance will be held for students Friday night at the Tiehen Gym following the game and coronation.

Homecoming Royalty beginning with the class of 1960 to the present have been invited back for the football game to be introduced at halftime as part of the special recognition of 125 years of education at the Sacred Heart School in Falls City. This is also the 25-year anniversary of the Sacred Heart boys football, basketball and track teams two Triple Crowns. Team members of the graduating classes of 1990-94 have also been invited to the football game to be recognized at half time.

The Irish volleyball team will travel to Rock Port on Tuesday evening and the Irish will host Southern on Thursday evening. This will be Parents Night for the Lady Irish.

Many other activities are planned throughout the week.

Many Signals Communications