

<http://www.MSCNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=57233>

Pawnee City Extends Power Agreement with NPPD

(KLZA)-- The Pawnee City Council has approved a new long-term agreement with Nebraska Public Power District and were introduced to the new NPPD General Manager when they met this week.

Pat Hatfield will be the new General Manager and has purchased a home in Pawnee City.

During the recent push by Pawnee City, urging NPPD to continue to have an office located in Pawnee City, the company wanted some assurance Pawnee City would remain a power customer.

Following review of a letter from Timothy Arlt, NPPD General Manager of Retail, the Council approved an amendment to the Professional Retail Operation agreement between NPPD and Pawnee City for 25-years of service.

Many Signals Communications