(KAIR--)
Two men are arrested, putting an end to a rash of burglaries at Atchison businesses.

“The two suspects are now in custody for burglary theft and criminal damage to property,” said Atchison Police Chief Mike Wilson. “These involve cases that occurred from mid-May to mid-June.”

The burglaries occurred at four different Atchison businesses including: King’s Super Store, All American Pawn, Iron Horse BBQ and Nell Hill’s.

He says the pair was caught after a burglary was reported Friday around midnight at Iron Horse BBQ.

The men, Antonio Clayter, Lansing and Devan Newson, Atchison were picked up by Atchison police shortly after the alleged break-in after their vehicle was spotted leaving the area.

“Then the investigation continued throughout the night in other burglaries that have occurred since mid-May,” Wilson said.

Both were taken to Atchison County jail.
