

Barn Move Will Create Power Outages

(KLZA)-- The Falls City Utility Department wants the public to be aware that a barn will be moved on the outer edges of Falls City this week.

Power lines will have to be disconnected over roadways to let the barn pass through. Power will be affected to many residences and some businesses as each line is disconnected and reconnected after the barn passes.

The barn is scheduled to be moved Tuesday, but is could be Wednesday.

Many Signals Communications