Falls City Hospital Honored

(KLZA)-- iVantage Health Analytics and the National Organization of State Office of Rural Health have recognized Community Medical Center in Falls City for overall excellence in Outcomes, Patient Satisfaction and Financial Strength.

The honor indicates high performance among all rural acute care hospitals in the nation.

Hospital CEO Ryan Larsen said “ our doctors, practitioners and staff are absolutely committed to our patients and community.” Larsen said he is pleased to see their efforts recognized.

The rankings are determined by the Hospital Strength INDEX, the industry’s most comprehensive and objective assessment of rural hospital performance.
