

<http://www.MSCNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=61221>

KS Soldiers to Assist in Inauguration

(MSC News)--Kansas will be represented during the swearing in of the 45th President of the United States.

According to a news release from the Kansas Adjutant General's Department, around 74 soldiers from the Kansas Army National Guard, and 70 Airmen from the Kansas Air National Guard, will be in the nation's capital for the inauguration of Donald Trump.

They are assigned to provide support during inaugural events, such as lending assistance with parade queuing, medical standby, mobile kitchen, and other tasks during Friday's ceremonies.

The Kansas soldiers will be part of the more than 7,500 National Guard Soldiers and Airmen from 44 states, three territories, and the District of Columbia, who will provide support services as part of the inauguration.

Many Signals Communications