

Meth Possession Sends Atchison Woman To Jail

(KAIR)--An Atchison woman goes to jail following the alleged discovery of methamphetamine on her person.

“It was about 10 am On Thursday morning when an officer on patrol did a traffic stop in the 1000 block of Harper Drive,” said Atchison Police Chief Mike Wilson. “She was taken into custody on driving while suspended and during that arrest, methamphetamine and drug paraphernalia was found on her person.”

He said arrested was 39-year-old Ebony Knott.

She was booked into the Atchison County Jail where she remains held without bond.

Many Signals Communications