

Attempted Murder Allegation Holds KCK Man
(KAIR)--Attempted murder.

That's the accusation against a 21-year-old Kansas City, Kansas man, who remains held in the Jefferson County Jail.

Brandon Cordell is charged with two counts of attempted 1st degree murder, along with misdemeanor theft.

He was arrested by the Jefferson County Sheriff's Office on February 23.

According to court documents, Cordell allegedly attempted to kill a woman on July 6 of last year in Jefferson County.

She is identified in the criminal complaint as Shirley Cordell, but it's not immediately clear how the victim is connected to the accused, nor are the specifics of what led to the attempted murder charge.

A status hearing in the case is scheduled for March 27.

Jefferson County Jail records indicate that Cordell remains behind bars on a bond of $100,000.

Many Signals Communications