

Richardson County Board Meets

(KLZA)--Richardson County Public Defender William VonSeggern met with the County Commission Tuesday to review his current contract.

VonSeggern told the Board he was interested in renewing the contract for an additional two-years at the same terms and conditions as the current contract.

Formal action on the request will be taken during a future meeting.

In other action, County Emergency Management Agency Director Brian Kirkendall met with the Board to review water damage occurring in the lower level of the Richardson County Courthouse.

Kirkendall said he has worked with County Maintenance Technician Tyler Cooper to repair some of the problems.

Many Signals Communications