

Falls City woman injured in wreck

(KLZA)--A Falls City woman escaped serious injury in a two-vehicle wreck Sunday evening on I-229 about five miles north of St. Joseph, Missouri.

The Missouri Highway Patrol reports 21-year old Hannah Weaver was northbound when a SUV she was following slowed abruptly and swerved toward the middle of the road.

Weaver did not have time to respond causing her pickup to strike the back of the SUV driven by 47-year-old Daniel Gann of St. Joseph.

Gann was not injured. Weaver suffered what were described as minor injuries but refused medical treatment at the scene of the wreck.

The Patrol says both drivers were buckled up when the wreck occurred.
