Recount settles Richardson County elections

(KLZA)-- The Richardson County Canvassing Board met Wednesday morning to conduct a recount of the Rulo Village Board race.

The results remained exactly the same. Those elected will be Trevis Keller with 30 votes; Quincey Smith with 29; Nathan Popejoy received 25 votes and Dion Grier remained at 24 votes.

Keller, Smith and Popejoy will join the Rulo Village Board.

The Shubert Village Board write-in candidates were tallied with the highest amount of votes cast for Tomas Borrego Jr. with 24.

There were 23 other names receiving between 1 and three votes each.

Linda Patchen and Borrego were elected to the Village Board of Shubert.
