

Dan White sworn in as Mayor of Auburn

(KLZA)-- Dan White has been sworn in as the Mayor of Auburn.

During the Monday night Auburn Council meeting re-elected City Council representatives Shawn Clark, Katie Billings and Chris Erickson also took the oath of office.

All ran unopposed for the seats.

Dan White is a Nemaha County Deputy Sheriff and formerly served as the Auburn Chief of Police.

Tom Clark was elected President of the Council for 2018.

Sherry Heskett will continue to serve as City Clerk but will also take on the duties of Treasurer. Angelo Ligouri will continue to serve as the City Attorney.

Many Signals Communications