

Revised 2020 Seneca city budget adopted

(KMZA)--The Seneca City Council has adopted a revised city budget for 2020 that keeps the mill levy at about the same level its been for several years.

The Council took the action Wednesday evening following a hearing drawing no public comment.

The budget contains an estimated tax rate of 32.588 mills.

It includes a quarter mill increase as requested by the Seneca Library Board.

The budget calls for the city collect nearly $779,000 in local taxes.

The Council had approved for publication a proposed budget that called for a nearly 3.3 mill levy increase. It contained the maximum tax rate allowed to remain under the state tax lid.

However, the Council opted to adopt a second version that keeps the same, lower tax levy the city has assessed for the last several years (32.340 mills), plus the quarter mill increase for the library.
