Horton library director resigns

(KNZA)--The search is underway for a new Horton Public Library director.

Cecilia Rettiger has resigned as director, effective September 20.

She has accepted a position with Doniphan County Library District #1 in Troy.

Rettiger took over as director of the Horton library following the retirement of Rita Higley at the end of May 2018.

Applications are currently being accepted for a new director. Those interested should contact the library to apply.
