

<http://www.MSCNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=68213>

Atchison candidate forum set for Monday

(KAIR)--Candidates vying for three open Atchison City Commission seats will take part in a forum planned for Monday.

The candidate forum is being held by the LEAD Council of the Atchison Area Chamber of Commerce.

According to a news release, the forum will begin at 6:00 Monday evening in the USD 409 Community Room, located at 626 Commercial Street.

It will be live streamed on the Atchison, Kansas Facebook page, and recorded for later playback on Atchison's local access channel.

Questions for the candidates have been submitted in advance, and will be asked by forum facilitator Steve Johnson, the Director of Marketing and Communications at Benedictine College.

Seven candidates are seeking the three open seats, including incumbents Charles Perdue and David Hausmann. Also seeking election are Abby Bartlett, Lisa Moody, William Murphy, J. David Faris and Luke Jesnowki.

Many Signals Communications