

<http://www.MSCNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=68451>

Atchison City Commission race finalized

(KAIR)--The race for three open seats on the Atchison City Commission has been finalized.

The city of Atchison announced on its Facebook page Monday that after a count of twenty-two provisional ballots and seven additional mail-in ballots that were postmarked before Election Day, the third city commissioner elected and earning a two-year term is Lisa Moody.

Unofficial results following the November 5 election, showed incumbent Charles Perdue trailing Moody by just a 4-vote margin.

Moody will join Abby Bartlett and J. David Ferris in filling the three open seats.

The Atchison County Commission Monday canvassed ballots from the general election.

Many Signals Communications