

Hiawatha man enters plea in child sex chase

(KNZA)--A Hiawatha man facing a pair of child sex-related charges has entered into a plea agreement.

David Cattrell pleaded no contest Monday in Brown County District Court to a felony charge of breach of privacy.

In exchange for the plea, a felony count of sexual exploitation of a child was dismissed.

Sentencing was scheduled for December 16.

According to the criminal complaint, the breach of privacy charge alleges Cattrell used a concealed camcorder to secretly videotape a person.

He was arrested in April following an investigation by the Hiawatha Police Department.

Cattrell remains free on a $50,000 bond.
