Richardson County Board votes to meet twice monthly

(KLZA)-- Richardson County Commissioners are going to change their meeting schedule in 2020.

Tuesday, Board members voted 2 – 1 to adopt a resolution to change the meeting dates for 2020 to every two weeks, beginning January 14, with the Annual Reorganizational Meeting.

Third District Commissioner Terry Frank cast the nay vote.

The resolution states the Board has determined that scheduling meetings on a bi-weekly basis is sufficient to conduct and finalize the business of Richardson County.
