

<http://www.MSCNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=68649>

Boil Water Advisory lifted for the City of Atchison

(KAIR)--The Boil Water Advisory issued earlier this week for the City of Atchison has been lifted.

The all clear was given late Saturday morning after the Kansas Department of Health and Environment conducted testing that concluded that Atchison's water is safe for consumption.

The advisory was issued Thursday afternoon, following a water main break under Atchison's 5th Street viaduct.

Many Signals Communications