

Meth crimes hold two in Nemaha County

(KMZA)--Two methamphetamine-related arrests are made in Nemaha County.

According to a news release issued by Nemaha County Attorney Brad Lippert, 37-year-old Daisy Osborne, of Seneca, is accused of distribution of methamphetamine within 1,000 feet of school property and unlawful use of a communication facility.

It's alleged that Osborne distributed between 1 and 3.5 grams of methamphetamine on October 28.

The investigation that led to Osborne's December 12 arrest was conducted by the Seneca Police Department.

A preliminary hearing for Osborne was set for today.

She remains jailed in Nemaha County, held on a bond of $75,000.

Also facing the same charges in connection with the sale of methamphetamine is 40-year-old Matthew Ray Gifford, of Sabetha.

It's alleged that Gifford distributed between 1 and 3.5 grams of methamphetamine on November 5, using a telephone to arrange the alleged crimes.

His preliminary hearing was set for today.

The investigation that led to Gifford's December 12 arrest was conducted by the Sabetha Police Department.

Gifford remains in custody in the Nemaha County Jail, where bond is set at $50,000.
