

U.S. Mail used in area scam attempt

(KNZA)--A letter being received through U.S. Mail is raising concerns for an area Sheriff.

Brown County Sheriff John Merchant, in a release, says “many people in Brown County have been receiving scam letters,” leaving residents concerned that scammers have their home addresses.

Merchant says the letter is trying to get the recipients to forward their information by fax or email, promising that millions of dollars will be received from the estate of a potential relative. Merchant calls that promise a scam.

Merchant says by returning the correspondence, the door is opened for scammers to gain access to personal identity as well as personal financial information.

He adds that if someone is an actual heir to such a fortune, a credible attorney would make contact, not a form letter.

Nevertheless, I has Contacted you with genuine intentions and you won't regret it.

I got your contact information when going through an old file of my deceased client by the name of [REDACTED] a United States citizen, he passed on few years ago.

Our Financial institution (Claim Department) has issued me a notice to provide the beneficiary to his Life Insurance Unclaimed Fixed deposits, worth Millions of US dollars. By law, any unclaimed deposit precedes that have been left with the insurer without activity or contact for ten years, must transfer to the Treasury Division as unclaimed funds. Unfortunately, he has no will and has left his account with an open beneficiary

I have made some inquiries to find any of his immediate relatives, with no success. I tracked his last name in a database, to see if I could find any of his immediate family members, it also proved unsuccessful.

After these unsuccessful attempts, I would like to seek your assistance in the repatriation of those funds, using your name as the beneficiary to this unclaimed fund, because I believe you are one of his extended relatives, and you bear the same last name as him. All arrangements on how to secure the unclaimed funds have been put in place and I guarantee you that the proceeds of these unclaimed funds would be released to you legally as his beneficiary.
