

Deer blamed for Sunday rollover

(KAIR)--Two were transported for hospital care following a Sunday night rollover wreck in Atchison County.

According to a report from Atchison County Sheriff Jack Laurie, it happened around 11:45 when 19-year-old Horton resident Deven Anderson was behind the wheel of a Ford Crown Victoria.

Anderson, southbound in the 12000 block of Anderson Road, swerved to avoid a deer in the roadway, which caused him to lose control of the car, which rolled over several times.

Anderson and his passenger, 18-year-old Silas Garlington, of Overland Park, were both transported to the Hiawatha Community Hospital by EMS.

According to Laurie's report, both suffered minor injuries in the wreck.
