

<http://www.MSCNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=68971>

Auburn taking steps toward new fire hall

(KLZA)-- The Auburn City Council approved sending out requests for qualifications for engineers to assist with a new fire station.

The engineer will help with the estimates and appraisals to assist with an application for a federal Economic Development Administration grant for the project. The grant is available in part due to 2019 flooding.

The proposal is for a new building to house the Auburn and Auburn Rural Fire Departments and the Auburn Rescue Squad.

Many Signals Communications