Additional candidate files for Brown Co Commission

(KNZA)--An additional candidate filed before Monday's deadline for the position of 3rd District Brown County Commissioner.

The Brown County Clerk's Office reports Bill Pollock filed as a Republican candidate.

Pollock is challenging Republican incumbent Dwight Kruse in his bid for re-election.

Two positions are up for election this fall on the Commission.

Former Brown County Sheriff Lamar Shoemaker is running unopposed for 2nd District County Commissioner.

The position is currently held by Keith Olsen, who did not seek re-election.

The primary election will be held August 4 and the general election is November 3rd.
