Missouri primary election results

(KLZA)--A pair of incumbents were successful in bids for reelection Tuesday in Missouri primary elections.

In the Republican primary in Holt County Sheriff David McLain out-polled challenger John Brook 792 - 263. No Democrats filed for the office.

In the Republican primary race for Holt County Coroner, Incumbent Susan Lentz defeated challenger John David Sommer 811 - 250.

Voter turnout in Holt County was 37.5 percent.

In Atchison County Sheriff Dennis Martin defeated a pair of challengers in the Republican Party primary. Martin received 1,040 votes. Andy Riley received 312 votes and Tyson Gibbons received 269 votes. There were no Democratic candidates.

There were no other local contested races. 44.7 percent of the counties registered voters cast ballots on Tuesday.

Many Signals Communications