Two Atchison residents arrested on drug charges

(KAIR)--Two Atchison residents have been arrested on drug charges.

According to a report from Atchison Police Chief Mike Wilson, officers responded early Thursday evening to the 12-hundred block of Ash Street to investigate a suspicious parked vehicle with two occupants.

Wilson said that investigation led to the discovery of controlled substances in the vehicle and the arrest of the two occupants.

22-year-old Colby Hawk was arrested for possession of an hallucinogenic drug, marijuana and drug paraphernalia.

25-year-old Jewel Rawls, Jr. was arrested for possession of marijuana, oxycodone and drug paraphernalia.

Both made were booked into the Atchison County Jail.

Hawk remained in custody Friday morning, while Rawls has been released on bond.
