Truck driver injured in Holt County wreck

(KLZA)-- A Lamar, Missouri man suffered what were described as minor injuries in a single vehicle wreck Sunday afternoon in Holt County, Missouri.

The Missouri Highway Patrol reports 64-year-old Ray McNaught was southbound on Interstate 29 approximately three miles east of Oregon when the semi-truck he was driving went off the west side of the road and struck two trees.

McNaught was transported by the Atchison-Holt EMS to Fairfax Community Hospital for treatment of his injuries.

The 2001 Peterbuilt was totaled.

The Holt County Sheriff's Department assisted at the scene of the wreck.
