

<http://www.MSCNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=70754>

One injured in I-29 wreck

(KLZA)-- A Lincoln man suffered moderate injuries in a wreck just after midnight Monday on I-29, east of Watson. .

The Missouri Highway Patrol reports 28-year-old Alexander Cruzpagan was northbound on Interstate 29 when his pickup began sliding on the ice covered roadway and traveled off the road where it overturned on its top.

Cruzpagan was transported by the Atchison-Holt Ambulance to Grape Community Hospital in Hamburg, Iowa.

The Atchison County Sheriff's Office and Rock Port Police Department assisted at the scene of the wreck.

Many Signals Communications