Monday wreck sends woman to the hospital

(KAIR)--A Monday morning Atchison County rollover wreck sent a Horton woman to the hospital.

According to a report from the Kansas Highway Patrol, 52-year-old Melissa Coy was southbound on U.S. Highway 159 when she lost control of her Ford Expedition. The vehicle left the roadway and rolled over, leaving Coy with what the Patrol described as a “suspected minor injury.”

She was transported to the Hiawatha Community Hospital for examination.

According to the Patrol, Coy was wearing a seatbelt when the wreck happened, three miles south of Horton, shortly before 9:30 Monday morning.
